

St. Louis County Board of Elections and St. Louis County Library

Announce Return of “I Voted” Sticker Contest

ST. LOUIS, Mo. – The St. Louis County Board of Elections is excited to announce the return of the popular “I Voted” sticker contest, hosted in partnership with the St. Louis County Library.

St. Louis County residents are invited to submit their designs beginning on September 29. Three original sticker designs will be chosen and reproduced into 500,000+ stickers for distribution at polling places in St. Louis County in 2026. New this year, a “Future Voter” sticker will also be chosen.

Contest Overview:

- Eligibility:
 - Open to residents of St. Louis County. Submissions will be judged in three categories: 6-8 grade, 9-12 grade, and 18 years or older.
- Submission Period:
 - Opens: Monday, September 29
 - Closes: Friday, October 17 at 5 p.m.
- Entry Method:
 - Digital and hand-drawn entries are accepted.
 - To download the hand-drawn entry form or submit a digital entry, visit <https://www.slcl.org/voting-sticker-contest>.
 - Hand-drawn entries can be submitted at any St. Louis County Library branch.
- Public Voting:
 - After a panel of judges narrows down the submissions, the public will be able to vote for the winning designs online from November 4 to November 14.
 - Winners will be announced on November 17.

To download the hand-drawn entry form or submit a digital entry, visit

<https://www.slcl.org/voting-sticker-contest>. Hand-drawn entries can be submitted at any St. Louis County Library branch. To view the branch locations, visit <https://www.slcl.org/branches>. Any artist younger than 18 years of age must have parental consent to participate in the contest. The parental consent form can be found at <https://www.slcl.org/voting-sticker-contest>.

Visit <https://www.slcl.org/voting-sticker-contest> for complete contest information. All questions should be directed to 615-VOTE or publicrelationsboe@stlouiscountymo.gov.